

Food Matters Manitoba (FMM) collects personal information such as names, phone numbers, email addresses and mailing addresses voluntarily provided by contributors, visitors to our website, third party referrals and those involved in the events and activities of FMM. Any information provided is used to keep you informed of events and activities in support of FMM; recognize donations and contributions; and administer transactions (i.e. conference registration confirmation; issuing tax receipts, etc).

You have the option to opt out of communication with FMM at any time.

FMM is committed to ensuring accuracy and protection of all personal information collected. Information is kept secure and only accessed by authorized employees. FMM does not sell nor share personal information with other organizations and does its best to protect information from loss and/or theft. On a case by case basis, FMM does refer to our database for networking opportunities and referrals.

FMM reserves the right to make changes to this policy. Any changes made will be posted. If you have questions, comments or concerns regarding our privacy policy you may contact our Office Coordinator:
